Superclass Ability

Name:Healing RiftCharge(s): 1 / 1

Recharge die: d6Recharge value: 6+

Description:

You create a vortex of Light that swirls in a flat 5-foot radius circle on the ground beneath your feet, centered on you. All Risen creatures standing in the circle may regain shield points equal to 1d8 + your Power modifier. Until the rift dissipates at the start of your next turn, Risen creatures who did not already receive this healing, but who do enter the area of your rift for the first time on a turn, may recover the same amount of shield points as well. You can only have one rift class Power ongoing at a time (either Healing or Empowering). If you cast a new rift class Power, the effects of any other ongoing rift class Powers instantly end for you.

Melee Ability

Name:Celestial FireCharge(s): 1 / 1

Recharge die: d6Recharge value: 5+

Description:

You use a free hand to hurl explosive solar energy at a target within range. Make a ranged Power attack roll, adding your Power level to the roll for this. On a hit, the target takes 1d8 + your Power modifier in explosive solar damage.

Range: 15/30

Super Ability

Name:Well of RadianceCharge(s): 1 / 1

Recharge die: d20Recharge value: 20+

Description:

You conjure a sword of pure solar Light and stab it into the ground beneath you, projecting an aura of bright Light in a 10-foot radius from the sword, and dim light 10 feet beyond that. Cast Effect. For each creature in the area of the bright light, choose whether they will take 3d8 solar damage or make a shield recharge roll. A creature may only receive one or the other, not both. Like normal, whenever a Risen creature makes any shield recharge roll, they must wait until the start of their next turn before they may do so again. However, if a creature's shield recharge roll made via this Power would be made at a Power level less than yours, they may make it at your Power level instead. Furthermore, the amount rolled may be applied to health first, with any leftover going into shield points. Lingering Radiance. For the duration of this Power, at the end of each of

Grenade Ability

Name:HealingCharge(s): 1 / 1

Recharge die: d8Recharge value: 6+

Description:

You throw a ball of soothing solar Light at a hard surface within range. When the grenade impacts the surface it releases its Light, and all Risen creatures within 5 feet may make a shield recharge roll. If a Risen creature would make this shield recharge roll at a Power level less than yours, they may make their shield recharge roll at your Power level instead. Like normal, whenever a Risen creature makes any shield recharge roll, they must wait until the start of their next turn before they may do so again.

Grenade Ability

Name:IncendiaryCharge(s): 1 / 1

Recharge die: d8Recharge value: 7+

Description:

You hurl a grenade packed with solar Light at a hard surface within range, and upon impact the grenade detonates. All targets within a 5-foot line-of-contact with the impact site must make a Dexterity saving throw. Targets that fail this saving throw take 3d6 explosive solar damage and are Scorched for the next minute. Targets that succeed take half as much damage and are not Scorched. A creature Scorched in this way may repeat a Constitution saving throw at the end of each of its turns, ending the effect itself early on a success. Creatures that succeed on their saving throw, or for whom the effect ends, are immune to being Scorched in this

Grenade Ability

Name:SolarCharge(s): 1 / 1

Recharge die: d8Recharge value: 7+
